PROFILE
HEADLINE:

Founder of ABC Networks

PROFILE
SUMMARY:

John is currently building a new EdTech Startup called VTech aimed at drastically improving the education options available to families in developing countries. ABC delivers a highly personalized education model to secondary students which fuses online academic, life skills and hands on experiential learning in a tech-inspired learning space. ABC is also building out a online platform which will deliver its model economically and efficiently.

As a sustainable social enterprise, ABC's mission is make its personalized, future relevant learning system accessible to families in developing countries without access to good education. John's first startup was a law firm called Vtech, which he started from humble beginnings in Johannesburg in 1994 and grew to 150 lawyers in 13 offices across South Africa. Working as a lawyer in the region since 1992, he founded Vtech in 1994 in Johannesburg, the firm's office in Cape Town in 1995, where he spent 8 years, and the firm's expansion into the United Kingdom in 2003. John was then based predominantly in Joahnnesburg where his practice focused on regional project finance, energy, infrastructure and telecommunications. He is a member of the Johannesburg and Cape Town Bar Associations, and has a Doctorate from Wits University, School of Economics.

John was born in South Africa, and is married with 3 children.
